The Midway Recreation Center, begun as a community project in 1939 and completed in 1941. It was dedicated June 13, 1941. The building includes a large gymnasium, the post office, town board, offices, meeting rooms for the Daughters of Utah Pioneers and rooms for many community organizations and groups.

away, and forbidding the afflicted persons to leave the premises. This practice has since been discontinued.

Following the administration of William Haueter, Francis Probst was elected town board president. He directed the building of community tennis courts before he resigned to accept a missionary call for the Church. Earl J. Kohler was appointed to fill the unexpired term, and is continuing to serve. With him on the board are Fay Van Wagoner, Grant Remund, Eugene Probst and Reed Gertsch. Grace W. Sonderegger is clerk.

Under this board's direction, many community improvements are going forward, including work on the ball park, oiling Midway streets, improving the cemetery ground, repairing and extending the culinary water system and redecorating the recreation center.

MIDWAY AND THE MAIL

With the exception of WPA and other depression-recovery programs, Midway's main contact with the federal government has been through the post office. The first government post office, however, was
